Taylor'd Garden is a 7,600+ sq ft wedding venue / event space with a modern architectural design. I wanted to pay homage to Garden of Faith, my first church home founded by my grandfather, where the motto ultimately became: "Come plant your seeds at the Garden, and watch your faith grow." In efforts to continue his legacy along with my own, the name Taylor'd Garden came to fruition with a spin off my middle name. Through the years, I have sown my seeds in the event industry and it has blossomed into the opportunity to offer this beautiful space. I can't wait for you to "Gather at the Garden".
